We source insurance products from the following life insurance companies:

- AIA
- Partners Life
- Fidelity Life
- Asteron Life
- Southern Cross (Health Insurance)
- Nib (Health Insurance)

Our advice process

We follow an internationally recognized six-step advice process which involves:

- Establishing the areas of advice for the current engagement (Scope of Service and Engagement).
- Questioning and discussion about your needs and objectives (Fact Find and Needs Analysis).
- Further analysis and research by in designing a solution to match your needs.
- Preparing a written report for you (Statement of Advice), which provides recommendations and a clear explanation of the rationale for those recommendations.
- Presenting these recommendations to you and implementing any agreed solutions.
- Reviewing these solutions and strategies on a regular basis

In providing you with financial advice we will take into account existing personal insurances. We will not provide advice on existing whole of life or endowment investment products so you will need to consult an investment specialist for advice on those products.

Our qualifications and experience

Theo holds the New Zealand Certificate in Financial Services (Level 5) and has been providing financial advice for personal risk insurance since 2012. He is product knowledge-accredited by all providers he uses. Cristina is part way through her New Zealand Certificate in Financial Services (Level 5) and has been providing financial advice for personal risk insurance since 2010. She is product knowledge-accredited by all providers she uses. Both Theo and Cristina undertake regular and ongoing professional development to maintain and improve their product knowledge and competence. More information is available on our web site at: <https://www.uproctnznz.com/financial-advisers/>.

Our Duties and Obligations to You

This Financial Advice Provider (FAP) and any person giving advice on the FAP's behalf (Theo or Cristina Simeonidis) is bound by the duties and obligations under the Financial Markets Conduct (Regulated Financial Disclosure) Amendment Regulations 2020, relating to the way that we give advice.

We are required to:

- meet the standards of competence, knowledge and skill set out by the Code of Professional Conduct for financial Advice Services (these are designed to make sure that we have the expertise needed to provide you with advice).
- act with integrity and give priority to your interests.
- exercise care, diligence, and skill in providing you with advice.
- meet the standards of ethical behaviour, conduct, and client care set out by the Code of Professional Conduct for Financial Advice Services (these are designed to make sure we treat you as we should and give you suitable advice).

This is only a summary of the duties and obligations that we are required to meet. More information is available by contacting us, or by visiting the Financial Markets Authority web site at: <https://www.fma.govt.nz/>.

How we get paid

UProctnNZ Insurance Services Limited does not charge fees, expenses or any other amount for the financial advice provided to you. UProctnNZ Insurance Services is paid in the form of commission by the insurance provider through which we place business. This is paid to UProctnNZ Insurance Services Limited. The amount of commission is based on the amount of premium you pay. Typically, we all receive an upfront commission and then an annual ongoing commission for providing continuing service in undertaking annual reviews for our clients, managing claims or at any other times when there have been material changes in the client's situation requiring a review. More specific detail is provided at the time our advice is given.

Other costs

UProctnNZ Insurance Services may charge a fee where a client cancels a life or health insurance policy within two years of inception. Whether a fee will be charged and the manner in which it will be charged will be advised when the advice is provided to the client. This fee will be payable by the client by the 20th of the month after the policy is cancelled.

Conflicts of Interest

To ensure that we prioritise your interests, we follow an advice process that ensures our recommendations are based on your goals, needs and circumstances. We manage any possible conflicts of interest by:

- Avoiding any production incentives offered by product providers.
- Maintaining access to a range of product providers.
- Using third party product research as part of our analysis.
- Having our processes audited annually by a reputable compliance adviser.

Occasionally, product providers may host adviser conferences or professional development seminars/courses which are an important component of our advisers' continued professional development.

Complaints Handling and Dispute Resolution

If you are not satisfied with our financial advice service you can make a complaint to us in the first instance, either by email (theo@uprotectnz.com or cristina@uprotectnz.com), or by calling 09 528 8724. You can also write to us at 391 Millwater Parkway, Silverdale 0932.

When we receive a complaint we will consider it by following our internal complaints process:

- We will consider your complaint and let you know how we intent to resolve it. We may need to contact you to get further information about your complaint.
- We will resolve complaints with 10 working days of receiving them. If we can't, we will contact you within that time to let you know we need more time to consider your complaint.
- We will contact you by phone or email to let you know whether we can resolve your complaint and how we propose to do so.

If we can't resolve your complaint, you can contact the Insurance & Financial Services Ombudsman Dispute Resolution Scheme.

Insurance & Financial Services Ombudsman Dispute Resolution Scheme. The Insurance & Financial Services Ombudsman provides a free, independent dispute resolution service that may help investigate or resolve your complaint, if we haven't been able to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction.
